

RADICAL EDU

SCENARIO

- ① student selects a NEST and moves into a community-provided shared home.
- ② student immediately begins learning about community projects, meeting collaborators in the NEST and in the WILD.
- ③ student prototypes and researches in the WILD, signs up to lead a skill share on "typography in public spaces."
- ④ Eventually transitions to a local non-profit to begin a "career."

by tyler galloway and Sean Donohue

MISSION

Direct Action Gets the Goods

[AKA]

Instill curiosity, creativity, and holistic knowledge through a highly localized multidisciplinary learning unit focused on experiential learning by responding to community needs in a real-world context and timeline.